TITLE IX	MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS	Articles 42–47

TITLE I: GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1: The Institut Universitaire de la Cote is an institution in which every person enjoys rights and duties. These regulations have been adopted by the University Council for the attention of all students so that no one may claim ignorance thereof. They embody a set of educational values guaranteeing to each student healthy conditions for their training, their integration into the socio-professional environment, and their full personal development.

Article 2: The Institut Universitaire de la Cote and its national and international partners make human and infrastructural resources available to support students in the realisation of their training projects, in order to better meet the needs and requirements of the economic and social world.

Article 3: It is therefore important to ensure respect for a set of rules aimed at guaranteeing the dignity and integrity of individuals as well as the preservation of property. By enrolling at the Institut Universitaire de la Cote, each student commits to complying with the provisions of these internal regulations.

Article 4: Within the premises of the university institution, every student is subject to general discipline rules and the maintenance of order, centred on respect for others, the safeguarding of property, and the institution's equipment.

Article 5: Every student is required to present their student card or proof of tuition fee payment at any unannounced or systematic check at the entrance to or within the university institution.

Article 6: The public service of the Institut Universitaire de la Cote is secular and independent of any political, economic, religious, or ideological influence. Accordingly, all acts of proselytism of a religious, political, or ideological nature are prohibited within the institution's premises.

Article 7: Members of the teaching staff are responsible for ensuring proper conduct during their courses, tutorials, and seminars. They have the right to require disrespectful students or those disturbing order to leave the classroom and report to the Discipline Department.

Article 8: In general, all students are expressly prohibited from engaging in any activity and/or action likely to disturb order, discipline, and security on campus.

Article 9: These student internal regulations cover the following points:

- 1 TITLE I: GENERAL PROVISIONS;
- 2 TITLE II: CAMPUS ACCESS;
- 3 TITLE III: CONDUCT AND GENDER-BASED VIOLENCE;
- 4 TITLE IV: DRESS CODE;
- 5 TITLE V: MOBILE PHONES, LAPTOPS AND OTHER DEVICES;
- 6 TITLE VI: EXAMINATION REGULATIONS;
- 7 TITLE VII: SECURITY;
- 8 TITLE VIII: CODE OF SANCTIONS;
- 9 TITLE IX: MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

TITLE II: CAMPUS ACCESS

Article 10: Entrances are exclusively reserved for students. Access to the campus is regulated. For day and evening classes, the opening hours are as follows:

Campus Access Hours:

Period	All IUC Campuses (except Campus D)	Campus D (Excellence Campus)
Morning	07:00–08:00 09:50–10:10	07:00–07:50 09:50–10:10
Afternoon	12:00–13:00 14:50–15:10	12:00–13:00 14:50–15:10
Evening	17:00–17:30 19:20–19:40 21:30–21:50	17:00–17:30 19:20–19:40 21:30–21:50

Access to or exit from campus outside these periods is prohibited, except with express written authorisation duly signed by the competent services. Student transport buses are not authorised to enter the campus with students on board.

Class Timetable:

- Day classes: 08:00–09:50 | 10:10–12:00 | 13:00–14:50 | 15:10–17:00
- Evening classes: 17:30–19:20 | 19:40–21:30

Article 11: Presenting the access or student card (or any other document attesting to student status at the Institut Universitaire de la Cote for the current academic year) is mandatory each time students access the campus or during any unannounced inspection.

Article 12: Rain and traffic congestion are not valid justifications for lateness. Late students are held in the student waiting room, in accordance with the applicable internal regulations.

Article 13: Identity checks (identifications or searches) may be carried out at the entrance or within the campus at any time as necessary. Any opposition to this provision will be considered a refusal to comply and will expose the individual to the sanctions provided for in these Internal Regulations.

TITLE III: CONDUCT AND GENDER-BASED VIOLENCE

Article 14: Attitudes and behaviours on campus must be beyond reproach among all parties involved — students, supervisors, administrative staff, and support personnel. Grievance Acts are defined as intentional behaviours or actions aimed at harming, offending, or hurting others. The grievance acts and attitudes listed below, classified from Low to Very High level, will be sanctioned as follows:

Article 15: LOW-LEVEL GRIEVANCE ACTS

- 1 Incomplete assignment;
- 2 Unjustified absence;
- 3 Insubordination;
- 4 Abuse of any kind towards a student, supervisor, administrator, or support staff member;
- 5 Idleness or loitering on campus during class hours;
- 6 Wearing a cap / hat / beanie / earphones / piercings or multiple earrings, extravagant hairstyles, etc. inside the campus;
- 7 Spreading gossip about a student, supervisor, administrator, or support staff member;
- 8 Deviant behaviour or illicit activity on campus (trading, flirting, card games, etc.);
- 9 Possessing a mobile phone or tablet on campus during class hours;
- 10 Taking photographs or video of a scene or object without express permission;
- 11 Verbal violence — mockery, rumours, insults, or degrading remarks towards a third party;

- 12 Intimidation of any kind.

Article 16: HIGH-LEVEL GRIEVANCE ACTS

- 1 Involvement, directly or indirectly, in gambling;
- 2 Incomplete assignment during an examination;
- 3 Acts or attitudes of insubordination;
- 4 Cyber-bullying — any harmful act carried out through social media or other platforms;
- 5 Fighting or assault of any kind towards a third party on or around campus;
- 6 Theft — taking what does not belong to you without authorisation;
- 7 Embezzlement or fraud of any kind;
- 8 Refusal to comply with instructions;
- 9 Verbal violence towards a third party;
- 10 Swindling or scamming fellow students, parents, or supervisors;
- 11 Falsification or manipulation of any administrative document;
- 12 Disturbances of any kind on campus;
- 13 Harassment of any kind towards a student or staff member of the Institut Universitaire de la Cote;
- 14 Carrying a bladed weapon on or around campus.

Article 17: VERY HIGH-LEVEL GRIEVANCE ACTS

- 1 Possession of or contribution to the distribution or consumption of narcotic substances;
- 2 Manifest consumption of narcotic substances;
- 3 Physical assault against a supervisor or any other person;
- 4 Carrying a firearm;
- 5 Use of bladed weapons;
- 6 Misappropriation of tuition fees for purposes other than those intended;
- 7 Being on campus in a state of drunkenness or intoxication;
- 8 Any act of score-settling observed on campus;
- 9 Any act of trafficking in or consumption of alcohol on or around campus;
- 10 Use of music devices or watching films during class hours;
- 11 Characterised sexual harassment;
- 12 Attempted sexual assault;
- 13 Offering sexual favours in exchange for grades or payment of tuition fees;
- 14 Cyber harassment;
- 15 Writing on tables and walls on campus;
- 16 Spreading scepticism on campus;
- 17 Unauthorised access to campus — use of non-authorised access routes;
- 18 Any behaviour observed on campus that is likely to disrupt an academic activity (classes, lab sessions, tutorials, conferences, etc.);
- 19 Repeated wearing of a cap / hat / beanie / earphones on campus;
- 20 Using music devices or watching films in class during class hours;
- 21 Gender-based discrimination — unequal treatment, prejudice, or stereotyping based on sex;
- 22 Discrimination against persons with disabilities;
- 23 Collaboration as an actor or passive witness in any consumption of narcotic substances;

24 Posting notices or announcements on walls and other unauthorised locations on campus.

Article 18: Attendance at all regularly scheduled classes is mandatory. Student attendance is supervised by the department head who may, if necessary, call upon the Discipline Department to summon parents or convene a disciplinary council.

Article 19: Obtaining an entry or exit authorisation requires presenting evidence justifying the absence (medical file, express parental request, etc.). Absences due to illness are subject to the opinion of the campus infirmary. Unjustified absences are not authorised.

Article 20: Sexual trafficking or any other similar act or behaviour, as well as the consumption of alcohol, cigarettes, drugs, or any other narcotic substance, are prohibited within campus premises and surroundings.

Article 21: Trafficking in tuition fee receipts, access cards, or student cards is considered fraud and shall be sanctioned accordingly, subject to criminal prosecution.

Article 22: Courtesy, politeness, and respect are required at all times towards members of the administration, teaching staff, classmates, maintenance workers, security guards, and any other person present on campus. Any breach of conduct will be reprimanded according to its severity and may be referred to a disciplinary council.

Article 23: Cleanliness on campus is everyone's responsibility. Bins and waste containers are placed wherever needed to collect all waste. Students must keep toilets clean after use.

1 It is prohibited to place feet on or write on tables and walls, or to move chairs outside classrooms.

2 Any damage caused to buildings or furniture will be billed to the student responsible.

3 It is strictly prohibited to paste paper, posters, or notices on walls. Notice boards and mini notice boards are provided for approved announcements duly validated by the competent authority.

Article 24: Students who wish to do so may study on campus between 17:00 and 20:30, Monday to Friday, and on Saturdays from 07:00 to 17:30.

1 Students who wish to use this facility must obtain formal authorisation from the Discipline Department.

2 Personal or group work must be carried out calmly and with respect for the institution's infrastructure.

3 Misconduct during individual or group evening study sessions will be sanctioned in accordance with these internal regulations.

4 Notwithstanding the above, the Institut Universitaire de la Cote declines all liability for anything that may happen to any person in the event of unauthorised presence on campus outside class hours.

Article 25: The Institut Universitaire de la Cote cannot guarantee the security of electronic devices, valuables, bicycles, motorbikes, vehicles, and other property belonging to students on campus. Each student is personally responsible for the security of their own belongings on campus.

Article 26: Any behaviour aimed at tarnishing the image of the Institut Universitaire de la Cote is strictly prohibited.

Article 27: It is expressly prohibited to access or be found on campus in a state of drunkenness or intoxication.

Article 28: It is also prohibited to organise fundraising collections on campus or to distribute flyers/leaflets without prior and formal authorisation from the management.

TITLE IV: DRESS CODE

Article 29: Students of the Institut Universitaire de la Cote must wear decent, clean, and appropriate attire on campus at all times. The following are strictly prohibited:

- 1 Torn, ripped (destroy), or distressed trousers; three-quarter shorts; jogging trousers; culottes; leggings and tights;
- 2 Clothing significantly above the knee — minidresses, miniskirts, mini-kabas, cut garments, etc.;
- 3 Clothing that exposes the chest, the navel, or the entire back;
- 4 Flip-flops (babouches);
- 5 Extravagant hairstyles or brightly coloured hair extensions;
- 6 Dishevelled or dirty hair, and piercings with multiple rings/studs;
- 7 Wearing caps, ankle bracelets, or extravagant sunglasses on campus.

Any student whose attire is deemed indecent or non-compliant will be denied access to or expelled from campus by the competent authorities, without any further formal procedure.

Article 30: Failure to comply with the provisions of Article 29 may result in the confiscation of the item in question for a period of ten (10) clear days, in exchange for a confiscation slip. The Institut Universitaire de la Cote is not responsible for the condition of confiscated items, nor for items not collected after the expiry of the confiscation period.

TITLE V: MOBILE PHONES, LAPTOPS AND OTHER DEVICES

Article 31: Mobile phones and other audio devices must be switched off — not set to vibrate — and headphones and earphones must not be used on campus during class hours, which are defined as follows:

- Day classes: 08:00–09:50 | 10:10–12:00 | 13:00–14:50 | 15:10–17:00
- Evening classes: 17:30–19:20 | 19:40–21:30

Article 32: Any mobile phone or audio device (including headphones and earphones) used during class hours will be confiscated for five (05) clear days, in exchange for a confiscation slip. In the event of a repeat offence, the device will be permanently confiscated and may only be retrieved at the end of the semester or end of the academic year. The Institut Universitaire de la Cote is not responsible for the condition of confiscated items, nor for items not collected once the confiscation period has expired.

The use of a mobile phone for any purpose whatsoever — calls, reception, games, calculator, stopwatch, clock, etc. — is strictly forbidden on campus, even in the teacher's absence, except with the teacher's express authorisation.

TITLE VI: EXAMINATION REGULATIONS

Article 33: Any confiscated item must be forwarded without delay to the Discipline Department of the Institut Universitaire de la Cote by the person who carried out the confiscation. Only the Discipline Department is authorised to return a confiscated item.

Article 34: The examination and competition system is governed by the examination rules. Accordingly, any act of misconduct or fraud will be dealt with by an examination fraud jury convened for this purpose.

Article 35: Cases of misconduct, confiscation of devices of any kind (mobile phones, earphones, headphones, etc.) as well as cases of fraud during examinations will be subject to an examination fraud jury, the operation of which is governed by the examination regulations.

The examination regulations and/or the text harmonising sanctions against students guilty of fraud and other disturbances may be posted at the entrance to each examination room and may be read aloud at the start of each examination session.

In the event of fraud or misconduct detected during an examination:

- 1 The examination secretariat and/or the structure responsible for the material organisation of examinations within the institution shall forward the files to the competent structures for dissemination, application, and recording in the file.
- 2 A fraud jury shall be convened and organised by the management of the relevant establishment, and decisions shall be forwarded to the competent services for dissemination, application, and recording in the file.
- 3 The fraud jury, responsible for the material organisation of examinations within the Institut Universitaire de la Cote, shall without delay notify the establishment's management, and decisions shall be forwarded to the competent services for dissemination, application, and recording in the file.

TITLE VII: SECURITY

Article 36: The security of persons and property on campus and in its surroundings is everyone's responsibility. Accordingly, any suspicious attitude or behaviour must be promptly, rapidly, and discreetly reported to the administration and/or security guards.

Article 37: Competent services may carry out systematic searches and identity checks on campus whenever necessary. Any opposition will be considered a refusal to comply and will be sanctioned in accordance with the provisions of the law and these internal regulations.

It is strictly forbidden to allow outsiders access to the campus without the anti-terrorist authorisation required under Cameroonian law.

It is strictly forbidden to allow outsiders onto campus without express authorisation from the administration or without their having been formally identified. Offenders will be considered accomplices of such intruders and subject to the sanctions provided under Articles 33 and 34.

TITLE VIII: CODE OF SANCTIONS

Article 38: It is strictly prohibited to post any notices or flyers inside or on the exterior wall of the campus without prior authorisation from the administration.

Article 39: It is strictly prohibited to post any notices or flyers inside or on the exterior wall of the campus without prior authorisation from the administration.

Article 40: ANY REPREHENSIBLE BEHAVIOUR SHALL BE SANCTIONED

Any reprehensible behaviour shall be sanctioned in accordance with the table below:
